

Removing fixer stains from clothes

1. Mix 7.5 grams of thiourea and 7.5 grams of citric acid into 75 ml water. Stir to dissolve; add enough water to bring volume to 100 ml.
2. Apply the solution to the stain and wait for the stain to disappear.
3. Wash the garment well.
4. Old stains may take longer than fresh ones and may need a second treatment.